

Mr Themba Dubazana

Themba Dubazana is a seasoned corporate support service management professional, with extensive experience which spans over two decades. Throughout the years he has gained vast experience across the public and private sectors.

His depth of expertise in Corporate Support Services Management has been nurtured through his six year-long tenure at the South Africa's Social Security Agency (SASSA), in Limpopo.

His current portfolio at SASSA includes: Human Resources Management, Employee/Labour Relations and Development, Legal Advisory Services, Information and Communication Technology services, Occupational Health and Safety, Auxiliary Services, Facilities and Property Management, Security Operations, Records Management as well as Monitoring and Evaluation.

Mr Dubazana holds a B-Tech degree in Labour Relations Management, B-Tech degree in Public Management, Masters Degree in Management, Masters degree in Development and Management as well as a Diploma in Public Management.